A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weakness and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary spots or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cure. It is the most potent purifying tonic and strengthening medicine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of women's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equalled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take and GIVES WIFE TO ANOTHER.

The New York World prints the following:

Karl Jern, the Metropolitan Opera House tenor, novelized last week the mystery that surrounded his wife's recent arrival in this country and her sudden departure Tuesday, revealing a domestic tragedy that vies with the love life of John Ruskin.

Jern has arranged to give his wife to a young physician in Berlin, with whom she has fallen in love, and has settled on her $25,000 to give them a start in life. His affection for his wife is still deep rooted, as was shown by the way she embraced before she sailed. Like Ruskin, he is a martyr to unselfish love.

The noted tenor received a World reporter in his apartment in the Hotel Astor. On a table before him lay a long document in German.

"It sums up the story of a great part of my life," he said, "and figures back to the time I received my early musical education through the kindness of wealthy residents of Riga, my native town, on the shore of the Baltic. I met the woman I made my wife. We were very happy. Three children were born and I struggled hard to provide a good home for them. When I sang my way into the leading theatres in the community of my birth and was finally decorated by the emperor as a member of the royal household, my wife was even happier than I. But around this very success I had achieved there grew a cloud which could dispel.

"As the heavier operatic roles confronted me I was forced to study all the harder. I became the student; my wife longed for other things. She made fun of my endeavoring to master foreign languages. She came to hear me sing only twice. On those occasions I appeared in Berlin. She wanted to live here, and when I came to this country she remained.

"After I came here I realized we didn't understand each other; that she was not a native, and as I grew fond of America, I determined to become an American citizen. I have filed my first papers and in so doing have forfeited my right to a life pension because of my title of 'Duke Singer,' which the emperor bestowed upon me.

"During my absence my wife fell in love with a physician in Berlin. She wrote me of it. But he has only a small practice and is poor. I sent for my wife, and she came here with my oldest daughter, Gretchen. This document is the result."

THE STATUE OF NIOBE.

Milan's j-alously over the much-discussed statue of Niobe is likely to lead to a bitter feud between Rome and Milan. The statue, it will be recalled, was removed to the latter city not long ago by a relative of Thomas Nelson Page, who had been used by the workman who found the valuable work of art in what is supposed to have been the garden of S-Ilus. The ground now belongs to the Commercial Bank.

Pending a final statement the statue was ordered by the courts to be delivered into the possession of the mayor of Rome. Accordingly, Mayor Nathan, of Rome, went to Milan yesterday, to take possession of the statue. At the Stora palace, where the statue is kept, a great crowd had collected, the members of which refused to let him enter the castle enclosure. When he again attempted, the crowd threw him into a snowbank. The mob then snowballed him, in spite of the efforts of the police to protect him.

The mayor finally entered the palace, where the formal transfer of the statue was to take place. The mayor of Milan and prominent citizens, as well as the representatives of the Commercial Bank, protested against the delivery of the statue. The room where it was kept was locked, and Senator Belmont refused to deliver up the key. Finally the sheriff, who accompanied Nathan as the representative of the court, ordered the lock broken, but no mechanical could be found to do it. As a result, the proceedings were adjourned. Nathan was bitted and snowballed again as he left the castle.

Later the court ordered that the statue be allowed to remain at Milan.

WHAT IT COST WARRINER.

Egypt-four thousand dollars was the price Charles L. Warriner, defaulting treasurer of the Big Four Railroad, paid for a woman's silence. Fearing exposure of his shortcoming he gave Mrs. Jeanette Stewart-Ford an average of $1,000 a month for seven years, the payments stopping only when the ex-parte came from other sources November 2, last.

Such was the substance of the startling testimony which Warriner gave yesterday in Cincinnati at the trial of Mrs. Ford on a charge of blackmailing him.

Warriner took the stand wearing an overcoat, which partly concealed his convict garb. At the demand of the defense he was ordered to remove his coat.

Warriner related his rise to the trusteeship of the Big Four Railroad, and said he met Mrs. Ford in October 1902. He Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.

"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.

"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.

"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."

Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

said she had introduced herself by telephone and had asked him to aid her in regaining the attention of an employee of the office.

The witness said she declined to aid her, and that she then informed him she knew he was short in his account. He said she demanded $2,000 as the price of her silence, and finally he gave her $750.

Then, under questions by Mr. Osh, the witness said that the payment to the woman had become regular. He swore he had given her $84,000 in all, usually paying $1,000 a month, and that these payments had lasted from October 1902 until last autumn.

"Finally I grew tired of it," Warriner testified. "I told her to go to New York and forget about the shore, and that I would see that she lived in comfort."

"She went, but came back again and she got $1,000 from me for that. Then I furnished $1,000 for surgeons' fees for an operation which she had performed. I also paid bills for her daughter and nurse during their stay at a hotel in Chicago. I paid so many bills I could not keep track of them."

Twenty-one persons were injured, one fatally, and some quite seriously, following an explosion of natural gas in the house of James de Rider, at Leroy, N. Y. The accident followed a fire that destroyed the Genesee Hotel, adjacent to the de Rider home.

Summer Homes Folder, Season 1910.

It is suggested that any of the readers of the Gazette who desire to entertain boarders for the coming summer turn to Mr. L. S. Brown, General Agent Southern Railway, 705 15th street northwest, Washington, D. C., for complete information as to name of resort, past location, address, or near what station, what distance from station, conveyance from station to house, number of guests, terms day, week and month.

We will be pleased to see the country full of boarders next summer and would be glad if this notice will induce a increased number of persons who will accommodate them for the coming summer season.

This information should reach Mr. Brown not later than February 10th.

Sufferers who say they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever, and obstructed nasal passages. This remedy acts directly on the inflamed, sensitive membranes. Cleansing, soothing and healing. One trial will convince you of its healing power. Price 30c.
